What I don't know, I will learn.

Personal interests

Engaging in construction work, using historical building materials and methods. I'm currently re-constructing a barn building in Czech Republic.

Crafting bespoke furniture and lifestyle pieces through woodworking.

Devoting time to my family.

Helping others to build their own sustainable solar solutions for home.

Creating helpful do-it-yourself home automation ideas & solutions.

Indulging in Sci-Fi series with a very nerdy inclination.

Embarking on the discovery of uncharted territories and uncovering the global frontier.
